

Accounting/Business Internship

The person filling this position should be Business, Finance, Economics or Accounting majors. Attention to detail, the ability to multi-task and excellent communication skills are all essential to this position. You will handle a wide range of important duties including tasks given to him by the director. This could also encompass administrative work.

Music/Teaching Internship

A teaching and music intern should have a lot of patience when working with the youths. He/She should be patient as teaching a person does take time. He/she should also be willing to sacrifice their time to give attention to the people that might need some extra help. In addition, she should be musically talented, very creative and versatile. Finally, he/she should have a keen eye for detail as well as good organizational, people and communication skills.

Organizational Development Internship

This fun and challenging opportunity would best be filled by someone who has strong organizational skills, excellent oral and written communication skills, has a passion to lead and motivate others and is self motivated.

Medical Internship

This internship enables pre-med, medical, nursing, pharmacology, and public health students to experience a hands-on placement in a remote village in Africa. The intern will be able to undertake home visits, educate families about preventative medicine and treat patients daily on an as-needed basis. Interns will take on administrative tasks in addition to assisting with patient exams and attending home visits.